- ii. Depositions shall proceed concurrently.
- iii. Whenever possible, unless counsel agree otherwise or the Court so orders, non-party depositions shall follow party depositions.
- iv. No depositions shall be extended beyond two business days without prior leave of the Court.

D. Experts, if any, are to be designated by June 13, 2008, and experts' reports exchanged no later than June 13, 2008. Depositions of experts and non-party depositions must occur within the time frame set out in the paragraph(s) above.

E. Requests to Admit, if any, are to be served no later than March 28, 2008.

5. Dispositive motions are to be served and filed by August 15, 2008. Answering papers are to be served and filed by August 29, 2008. Reply papers are to be served and filed by September 5, 2008.

All motions and applications shall be governed by the Court's Individual Practice Rules, which are available on the Internet at <http://www.nysd.uscourts.gov>. Note that under those rules, two courtesy copies of all motion papers must be provided to the court by the movant at the time the reply is filed. It is the responsibility of the movant to make sure that copies of all parties' papers are provided at that time.

Any party may request oral argument by letter at the time reply papers are filed. Whether or not requested, the Court will determine whether and when oral argument is to be held.

6. The joint pretrial order shall be filed no later than 30 days after completion of discovery, or after the final decision of any dispositive motion, whichever is later, unless a different date is set by order of the Court. The requirements for the pretrial order and other pre-trial submissions shall be governed by the Court's Individual Practice Rules.

7. Counsel consent to trial by a U.S. Magistrate Judge.
